

Child Safety Commitment Statement

Our Commitment to Child Safety

The Institute of Research and Learning (IRLearning) is committed to providing a safe and supportive environment for all children and young people. We value and respect their rights to feel safe, be heard, and be protected from harm.

We are committed to embedding child safety across all areas of our organisation. We uphold the National Principles for Child Safe Organisations, the Queensland Child Safe Standards and Universal Principle, as well as the NSW Child Safe Standards and the NSW Child Safe Scheme. Our policies, procedures and practices are designed to prevent harm and respond appropriately when concerns arise.

We actively promote the participation and empowerment of children and young people and ensure they have access to trusted adults, culturally safe communication channels, and opportunities to raise concerns or ask questions.

Child safety is everyone's responsibility. All IRLearning staff and contractors must uphold our commitment through their actions, conduct, and communication.
